

> Business Information

Creditreform International Commercial Reports

Safe cross-border business

Well-founded credit assessments of international business partners

In this age of growing globalization, many small and medium-sized companies are among those seizing the opportunity to open up new markets abroad. As international trade increases, so too, invariably, does business risk. Creditreform International Commercial Reports provide detailed credit status information to help you choose the right business partners.

Application

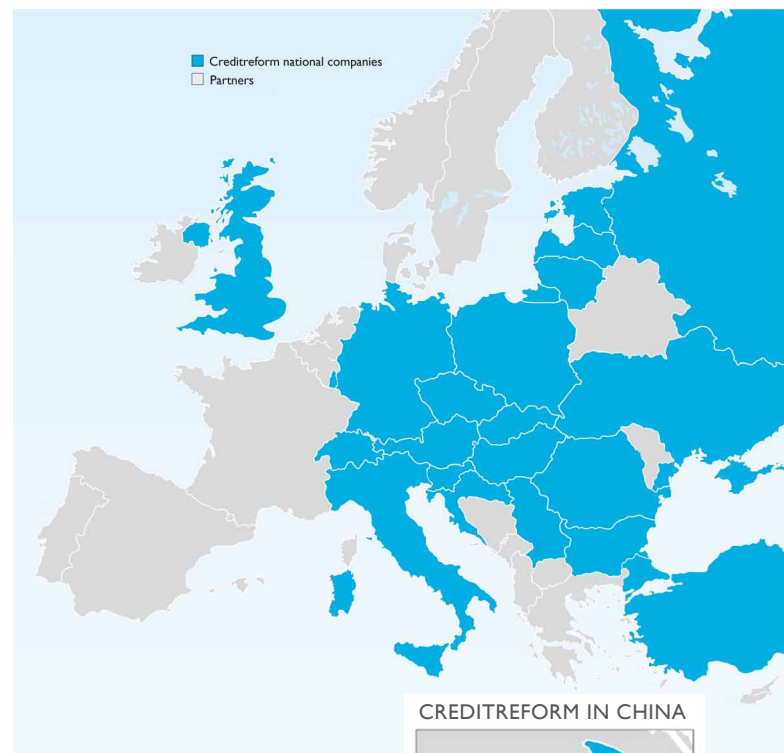

- Establishing sound credit limits for new and existing international customers
- Evaluating potential business partners abroad
- Verifying customers and suppliers
- Examining the scope for extended cooperation

Solution

- Creditreform credit assessment worldwide
- Internationally standardized information on foreign customers and suppliers
- Current and historical business figures, multiple balance sheets and P&L data
- Available in English, German or French
- Bespoke reports available on order

At your service where you need us

Creditreform is present in 21 European countries and China with business offices of its own, and with selected partners it has built up a dense global information network. Direct on-the-spot research ensures commercial reports of the highest standard and guarantees an assured basis for your international business success.

CREDITREFORM IN CHINA

Content

Depending on country-specific practices and data availability, international commercial reports include the following information:

Company identification

Addresses, contact details, ID numbers

Credit assessment

Credit-Standing Index

Structural information

Legal form, date of founding, company register number, history, location, partners/shareholders, share capital, managers and their powers of representation, other company officers

Ownership structure

Shareholdings, membership of a corporate group

Business activity

Sector, sales revenues/employees, import/export, balance sheet performance over a period of up to 3 years, income statements over a period of up to 3 years, real estate

Additional information

Bank details, remarks

Business partner assessment

Payment conduct, credit evaluation and credit limit, business development, negative events

Integration

Our international commercial reports can be optimally integrated into existing business processes via standardized and customized system interfaces and applications. Our experts will be pleased to provide any assistance required.

Research

Where substantiated information is not available, our analysts obtain and assess data for you as part of our international commercial reporting service.

Your advantages at a glance

- Detailed assessment of international business partners based on well-founded, exclusive information
- Efficient searching and selection thanks to direct online access to 24 million European commercial reports
- Reliable decision-making in international business relationships thanks to Creditreform credit assessments for objective evaluation of risks
- International scope facilitated by extensive network of partners, global deliverability and standardized, uniformly structured reports
- Detailed information on the solvency, finances and business environment of foreign business partners as a dependable basis for assessment
- Highest standards of quality and freshness due to standardized assessment processes and commissionable research
- Identification of development trends and potential on the basis of current and historical business figures and balance sheets (normally multiple years)